

Branch Spokesperson

The Branch Spokesperson is a Member of the ODG Scrutiny Committee. The Branch Spokesperson should not be a Guild Officer (given the Scrutiny Committee's role is to challenge the Executive), but they can be a Branch Officer. It is the job of the Scrutiny Committee to ensure the Executive act in accordance with the wishes of Guild members.

Have, or develop, a high-level understanding of the workings of the Guild.

Understand the needs of Branch members well.

Have the ability to communicate effectively with both Branch members and the other members of the Guild's Scrutiny Committee.

Review reports from the Executive to the Guild's Scrutiny Committee (quarterly).

Attend meetings of the Guild's Executive with Scrutiny Committee (at least two meetings a year, but potentially more if the Scrutiny Committee wish or need). These meetings are expected to be a mixture of Zoom calls and in-person meetings.

Attend meetings of the Guild's Scrutiny Committee.

Report back to Branch members as required / necessary.